

Train-the-Trainer

This workshop is designed for participants who have little or no formal education or experience in the area of classroom training. As a practical, skill-building program, participants will be actively involved in planning, organizing, and delivering their own mini-training sessions. The overall goal is to provide a safe, supportive environment for the participants to experiment with various training tools and techniques. Participants can look forward to lots of open discussion.

As a result of attending this workshop, participants will gain an understanding of:

- Adult learning theory
- Communication as a systemic process
- Effective presentation techniques and strategies
- Professional delivery skills
- Successful classroom management
- Rapport building methods
- Creative trainer tactics
